Why is it worth attending the meeting?

Join us for a unique Polish-French business event focused on the legal landscape and market practices shaping cross-border entrepreneurship.

During this meeting, we will explore the most relevant regulatory developments, compliance expectations, and practical insights for Polish companies entering the French market, as well as for French entrepreneurs looking to establish operations in Poland.

Expect practical know-how, fresh market perspectives, and guidance to help you navigate both jurisdictions with confidence.

Who is this conference for?

We invite representatives and managers of Polish, French and international companies which are interested in the French or Polish market.

The conference will include Q&A session and networking opportunities during the cocktail reception.

What will we cover?

Business specifics of the Polish and French markets

Geopolitical, economic and cultural context.

Legal news in both markets

Which regulations should be given special attention while doing business?

The essence of compliance

Why and to what extent is compliance management becoming an essential element of success?

The specifics of business law, or how to start a business

Comparative analysis of the Polish and French legal systems.

The event will be held in English
